

Draft Preliminary Injunction Motion

Case: chen-v-meridian | Category: PLEADING

DRAFT PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION MOTION

Requested relief: Preserve Chen's access to the warehouse pending trial and prohibit Meridian from changing locks, terminating utilities, or interfering with shipments.

Factual basis:

1. Lease section 8.2 requires 90 days written notice before termination.
2. Meridian gave only 30 days in its January 18 notice.
3. Chen has evidence of a February 2 wire transfer that Meridian's ledger omits.
4. Chen estimates $485,000 in business interruption damages if warehouse access is lost.

Argument summary: Irreparable harm exists because the warehouse is configured for custom assembly work and replacement space cannot be secured before customer delivery deadlines.